Child Protection in Education 2018

Updated Keeping Children Safe in Education guidance will be published in early summer 2018.

New guidance on how to prevent and respond to reports of sexual violence and harassment between children published in December 2017.

Revisions to statutory guidance Working Together to Safeguard Children updated in February 2018.

With new and updated safeguarding guidance released this year, it's vital you remain up-to-date, understand all the latest guidance and know what you must do to ensure your school remains legally compliant.

This unmissable event will ensure you are fully briefed on the latest safeguarding guidance and have robust child protection procedures across your school.

Key focuses on the day include:

- Latest guidance: clarify the impact of the latest guidance on KCSIE, Peer-on-Peer Abuse and Working Together to Safeguard Children in your school
- Online safety: understand the new and emerging online trends and how to respond and record incidents of youth-produced sexual imagery
- Staff training: learn how to provide engaging safeguarding training and ensure all staff are up-to-date after the latest KCSIE guidance

The only safeguarding event where you can access one-to-one support from leading education lawyers and gain clarity and practical guidance on your legal obligations, enabling you to support and protect students from the latest safeguarding threats.

Optimus Education offers a wealth of expertise to support your whole-school improvement. From non-curricular awards, timely and informative conferences, packaged and bespoke consultancy, to in-house training and membership, Optimus is your one-stop-shop for your school or academy.

Speakers Include

Dai Durbridge

Partner, Browne Jacobson LLP

Dai specialises in advising schools and academies on all pastoral education issues, including admissions, exclusions, parental complaints, use of force and searching pupils. A recognised safeguarding expert, he regularly supports schools on complex safeguarding issues including handling disclosures of abuse, managing allegations against staff and parental consent.

Ann Marie Christian

Safeguarding Consultant,
Author and Speaker

A qualified social worker of 20 years Ann Marie is passionate about keeping children safe. She's an author and writes regular articles for various educational journals. Ann Marie has various roles working with local authorities including a LADO, LSCB trainer, social work manager, LSCB panel member, safeguarding advisor and school improvement advisor.

Dawn Jackson

Vice Principal, Coppice Academy

Dawn's teaching career started at Blurton High School. She is the Vice Principal/SENCO at the Coppice Academy, which is a small generic special school in North Staffordshire. The Academy ethos is to provide all of their children with the best opportunities to be happy, safe and to grow and aspire to be the best that they can be, both personally and academically.

Yvonne Spencer

Partner, Veale Wasbrough Vizards

Having worked for over 18 years advising schools on serious safeguarding incidents, inspection and regulation, SEN and equality, serious disciplinary incidents, complex complaints, reputation management and the media, Yvonne is well placed to assist schools when complex and often unforeseen incidents occur. Yvonne also leads on VVW's work with academies and maintained schools and has overseen over 500 academy conversion projects.

Mark Donkersley

Managing Director, eSafe

eSafe is a unique service designed to help education leaders meet their statutory safeguarding duties, including those defined by the Prevent duty and the Department for Education, "Keeping Children Safe in Education". Mark often provides briefings on safety in the digital environment to HM Government, as well as State and Federal government in Australia.

Charlotte Robertson

Co-founder, Digital Awareness UK

With a background in digital marketing, YouTuber and Co-founder of the online safety organisation Digital Awareness UK, Charlotte has represented global brands, and her videos have been viewed and shared by over 100,000 fans. This allows her to thrive in the digital world, but most importantly it helps her to understand and share her insights around how young people are engaging with social media.

Jennifer Richards

Executive Headteacher,
Aquinas Church of England
Multi-Academy Trust

Jenni has been teaching since 1996. She believes in creating an environment where all children and staff hold high aspirations for themselves and can flourish physically, emotionally, academically and spiritually. By working hard and being resilient she believes all can succeed. Through valuing all, recognising and implementing the support that is needed, all pupils can achieve their academic best.

Dr Sile McDaid

Consultant Child & Adolescent
Psychiatrist, Team Mental Health

Sile feels passionately about changing the way in which mental health is viewed and ultimately ensuring that wide ranges of professionals work together to ensure the health and wellbeing of young people today and into the future. Sile is a co-founder and director of Team Mental Health, a company providing training for professionals to prevent, detect, intervene early and stamp out the stigma associated with mental health.
